Ashton Schools Foundation

Can we help with a school equipment grant?

The Ashton Schools Foundation Charity, can offer help to parents, to meet some of their expenses, at the start of the new school year

Starting 6th Form/college/University in September, can be an exciting time for your children. But it can bring new expenses!! We may be able to help, if you find difficulty in meeting the extra costs associated with a new term.

We can offer a confidential financial grant towards equipment required by the school/college, for your child's course. Grants are limited and will be on a first come basis.

You need to reside in Dunstable, Houghton Regis, Totternhoe or Caddington, have a limited income and be in receipt of Universal Credit (proof will be required) to qualify.

Application forms are available via email only at present from:
