

British Monarchs

William the Conqueror

The history of the British Monarchy from 1066 and William the Conqueror through to Queen Elizabeth II.

How has our royal family changed in the past thousand years?

John
1199-1216

Henry V
1413-1422

Edward I
1272-1307

Henry VIII
1509-1547

Elizabeth I
1558-1603

Anne
1702-1714

James I
1603-1625

Victoria
1837-1901

Queen Elizabeth II

Queen Elizabeth II is the 40th Monarch since William the Conqueror.

She has been the head of state since 1952 That means that she has been our Queen for 67 years this year. She is the longest reigning monarch ever anywhere in the world. That is quite an achievement for a 93 year old.

Fun Fact

Did you know??

It is illegal to be within 100 yards of the reigning King or Queen without socks on?

Royal Joke!

What do William the Conqueror and Winnie the Pooh have in common?

The same middle name!

HA!

Our next 3 Kings!

