

My twins joined Thornhill in 2019 and I felt I wanted to get involved too; joining the Governing Body felt like a natural fit. I come from London originally, but have lived in Houghton Regis for a few years now, so I feel I know the area well. I'm also a Journalist at BBC Three Counties Radio so I'm up to date with what's happening in the local area and beyond.

I feel my background as a journalist gives me the skills to cast an analytical eye over what's happening at Thornhill, but also - I hope - the communication skills to help encourage wider discussions as a school community. I firmly believe that it takes many different people, organisations and influences to help raise and educate our children and I'm looking forward to getting stuck in to help the school attain the high ambitions it has for the future.
